CITY TO BUILD ICE PLANT

10 Pct. Reduction In City Pay Roll Ordered Tuesday

Retrenchment Policy to Become Effective First of Next Month

FUND IS IMPOUNDED

$30,000 Reserved for Light
Plant—Audit to Be Published

A retrenchment program effective July 1 was ordered Tuesday night by the Hope city council at its first-of-the-month meeting in the city hall. Employees of the Water & Light Plant were cut 10 per cent. City police salaries were left unchanged, but the force has been reduced from four men to three, the remaining members working longer hours.

Audit to Be Published

The council authorized the finance committee to arrange for publication of the city and Water & Light Plant annual audits, accountants having recently completed their check of all city funds and light plant funds and operations.

Further controversy over disposal of a $30,000 reserve fund accumulated by the light plant for purchase of a new generator was settled Tuesday when the council ordered this amount set aside as a special fund to be used only if, and when, it becomes necessary to purchase new equipment, repairs or machinery for the City Water & Light Plant.

Generator Deferred

This was accomplished by a resolution by the mayor and the council. Actual decision as to purchase of the new generator, however, rests with the Board of Public Affairs, who have been authorized to employ a consulting engineer to study the electrical needs of the city. His report will be transmitted by the affairs board to the council.

Extension of the anti-mosquito campaign sponsored early in the spring by Mayor John Vesey was ordered by the council Tuesday.

E. J. Baker was granted a permit to construct and operate a filling station at Third and Washington streets, after complying with regulatory ordinances.

False Application For Tags Alleged

Mrs. C. F. Ashmore Accused
After Husband Freed
of Reckless Driving

LITTLE ROCK.—Mrs. Raisy Ashmore, was held to the Grand Jury Tuesday by Municipal Judge Harb on a charge of forgery in connection with issuance of an automobile license tag by the state Highway Department several weeks ago. Officers testified that the woman, appeared at the state Highway Department offices and, giving the name of another woman, reported the theft of 1932 state license tags. Another set was issued in the other woman's name to replace the tags reported stolen, and it was alleged Mrs. Ashmore used them on her car.

The deception, police said, was disclosed last week after the car, driven by C. F. Ashmore, struck a child, who was not injured seriously. Ashmore was arrested on a charge of reckless driving and officers said his wife renewed the plates from the car. This aroused their suspicion and brought on the investigation. Ashmore was dismissed.

Bonus Army Crossing the Delaware

As war veterans by the thousands converge upon Washington to demand immediate payment of their bonus, scenes like this are common upon highways leading to the nation's capital. This picture shows members of the Camden, N. J., "bonus brigade" marching across the Delaware River Bridge toward Philadelphia on their way to Washington.

Fast Express Hits Wreck; 30 Injured

Four-Track Pennsylvania
Line Near Up. Cabmen
Seriously Hurt

DEANS, N. J.—(AP)—Between 25 and 30 persons were injured when an Atlantic City-to-New York express train ploughed into a derailed freight just west of here Tuesday night.

The locomotive and first three cars of the six-car express plunged over an eight-foot embankment. The last three cars left the rails but did not go over.

Hurry calls brought ambulances and physicians from New Brunswick, five miles east of here.

The engineer of the express train was thrown from his cab into a brook at the bottom of the embankment and was almost drowned before rescuers reached him. He suffered fractures of both legs.

The fireman also was hurt seriously. At hospitals in New Brunswick it was reported none of the passengers was seriously injured.

Four physicians and four nurses aboard the train administered first aid to many fellow passengers.

Traffic on the four-track trunk line of the Pennsylvania railroad was tied up.

Preliminary investigation indicated the freight had been derailed by the opening of a chute in a coal gondola. Coal flowing onto the tracks caused 12 freight cars to leave the rails.

The locomotive of the express train plunged into the brook after caroming off the coal gondola. Both trains were traveling east when the accident occurred, about 6:40 p. m. Eastern Standard time.

A report from Josephine hospital Wednesday said that Dick Huckabee, injured in an automobile accident on the Lewisville highway Saturday night, had shown considerable improvement since Tuesday, and that the outlook was more favorable for his recovery.

Pending Loans to Be Cleared 15th

No Second Installment
Checks After June 30,
Announcement

June 15 is the final deadline for federal crop loans, according to a communication just received by the Hempstead County Loan Committee from Karl M. Blanchard, manager of the Memphis Loan Bureau.

"No loans will be made out of this office after June 15, 1932, and all papers which are in the process of correction at this time, which have not been completed by the above date, will be returned to the applicant," his letter said.

"We ask that all crop production cards be in this office on or before June 30," he continued, "as no second installment checks will be issued after that date."

"The farmer also was hurt seriously. At hospitals in New Brunswick it was reported none of the passengers was seriously injured."

Four physicians and four nurses aboard the train administered first aid to many fellow passengers.

Tick Eradication Project Progresses

1000 Dipping Vats and 200 Operators Being Used in 8 Counties

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—One thousand dipping vats are being operated by about 200 inspectors in tick eradication work in the eight remaining tick infested counties in the state.

Dr. W. A. McDonald, inspector in charge of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry here, said these counties are scheduled to be released as tick free December 1. They are Bradley, Chicot, Desha, Drew, Ashley, Calhoun, Couchilla and Union counties. The work is being conducted by federal and state forces.

Improvement of dairy and beef herds in south and southeast Arkansas is being made since the work has been begun, Mr. McDonald said.

A youth who said he was accosted by five men Sunday night near Lambert's studio, told officers one of them guarded him while the others entered the place. A moment later he said he heard a shot and they all fled.

Four occupants of an automobile were halted shortly afterward by men carrying pistols and shotguns, but were permitted to continue when they were told their automobile was "too small." The driver of another car failed to heed their command to halt and a rain of bullets followed him as he sped away.

Officers believed the men who killed Lambert and held up several persons Saturday night were the same who held up a bridge game at the mountain home of Ed Gwin and a country store near Leeds several days ago.

While the search was on, a boy, his mother and two other women, were questioned in an effort to throw some light on the slaying of T. M. Lambert, photographer, in his Lookout mountain studio Saturday night. Names of the four were withheld.

VETERANS ARRIVING

At Least 10,000 Advocates of Bonus Expected by End of Week

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Issuance of an evacuation proclamation against 8000 veterans in the capital, seeking the immediate cash payment of the soldiers' bonus, was ordered Wednesday noon by Pelham D. Glassford, Washington chief of police. His order said trucks would be provided to take the veterans away Thursday.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Representative Rainey, Illinois Democratic leader, told newspapermen Wednesday morning that he would keep the house in session for a vote on Monday on whether to take up legislation for the immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus.

"A lot of those who signed a petition to discharge the rules committee from consideration of the cash bonus proposition have been coming to me, asking if we are not going to adjourn before June 3, but I told them no, you signed the petition and you can go to the mat on it," Rainey said.

The Illinois congressman later said that he did not believe congress could adjourn before June 20th or later.

Veterans Arrive
Police Wednesday kept in constant touch with the Federal authorities as to the number of veterans, here seeking immediate cash payment of the bonus continuing to grow.

Reports were current that all army posts in the vicinity of Washington were taking precautionary protective moves in view of the mounting number of veterans in the city.

Police officials have estimated that nearly 10,000 men would be in the capital by the end of the week.

Seek Bandit Gang In Alabama Hills

Outlaws Wanted for Murder and Series of Daring Hold-Ups

GADSDEN, Ala.—(AP)—The hill country north of here was scoured Tuesday for a roving bandit gang believed to be responsible for a murder and a series of daring hold-ups.

While the search was on, a boy, his mother and two other women, were questioned in an effort to throw some light on the slaying of T. M. Lambert, photographer, in his Lookout mountain studio Saturday night. Names of the four were withheld.

Emory Thompson For Legislature

Bois d'Arc Friends Persuade Fulton Man to Make Race

Backed by a group of friends in Bois d'Arc township, Emory A. Thompson of Fulton announced Wednesday that he would again make the race for representative from Hempstead county. His formal announcement appears in the political column of today's Star.

Mr. Thompson campaigned through the election of 1930, finishing third in a field of 11, just behind the two winning candidates for representative. In announcing his candidacy this time he published the following statement which he said had been offered him by his friends in Bois d'Arc and was responsible for his filing in the coming election:

"Mr. Thompson's friends in his home township having such confidence in his honesty and his ability to represent this county as it should be, have without obligating him in any way paid his entrance fee and are supporting him in every way that is honest and honorable.

"Mr. Thompson is a farmer and has lived among them the last eight years, and he fully realizes what it means to bear our tax burdens with cotton selling at five cents, and other commodity prices where they are.

"They believe that Hempstead county and Arkansas are in the main agricultural, and that at least one of our representatives, other qualifications being equal, should be directly connected with present-day farming.

"They believe in Mr. Thompson's qualifications, and recommend him to the people of Hempstead county as one of their representatives.

"Mr. Thompson made the race in 1930, and was next to the winners with eleven in the race."

Three Confess to Robbery Charges

Sentenced to Two Years
Each for Holding Up
Hot Springs Visitor

HOT SPRINGS.—J. B. Ferris of Mena and Henry Benson and Robert Hand, the trio accused of robbing J. C. Eberly, undertaker of Big Springs, Tex., pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Tuesday and were sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary. Arrested by city officials, Benson and Hand soon confessed and later repudiated their confession. Tuesday the trio, however, expressed a desire to plead guilty and "get it over with." They were taken to Little Rock late Tuesday afternoon by deputy sheriffs.

Eberly was held up on a county road and a large diamond ring taken from him. Local officers later located the ring in a pawnshop in Dallas. Ferris admitted having pawned it.

Court adjourned to July 18, the date set for the case of County School Board members and the county school superintendent, charged with falsifying election returns.

Jeweler Victim of $100,000 Robbery

Gotham Store Entered by Trio at Closing Hour;

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Three robbers invaded offices of the Bristol Seamless Ring Company late Tuesday and escaped with jewelry valued at between $50,000 and $100,000.

Ten persons, including the proprietor and four girls, were left bound and gagged in a rear room. The loot consisted almost entirely of diamond rings, most of which were taken from a large safe, as the store prepared to close. The door had not yet been shut.

One of the employees later wriggled to a telephone and knocked the receiver of the hook. The alarm brought nine police cars and two emergency squads.

Defendant Admits Tire Pump Slaying Near Texarkana

John G. Harris, However, Declares He Was "Hysterically Afraid"

SLAYS COMPANION

Mechanic Is Only Defense
Witness in His Trial for Murder

TEXARKANA, Tex.—(AP)—John G. Harris, aged 28, of Bono, Craighead county, admitted on the witness stand in Bowie District Court Tuesday that he beat Ed Royal, 65, of Port Huren, Mich., to death with a tire pump and automobile jack the night of March 12.

In admitting the truth of a confession made soon after his capture at Bono, Harris testified he was "hysterically afraid" of Royal. Harris testified he seized the tire pump in one hand and the jack in the other and began beating Royal.

Harris said he knew Royal carried a knife. Under cross examination by District Attorney E. L. Lincoln, Harris became confused.

The state used more than a dozen witnesses in identifying Harris as the companion of Royal in a Mount Vernon cafe shortly before the slaying, in describing the death scene and the condition of the body.

Defense cross-examination of state witnesses was confined largely to the amount of money found in Royal's pockets and to the fact that the pocket watches were turned inside out.

"The state struck a severe blow at the defense plea of 'hysterical fear' through stressing the previous effort of Harris to fight insanity."

The defense promised to present a new issue Wednesday. It is expected to complete the testimony early in the day with the case going to the jury in the afternoon. The state is demanding the death penalty.

Climaxes Fight to Compel
Southern Ice to Cut Rates

PLAN ICE AT COST

Special Committee Authorized to Draw on Light Plant

Climaxing a fight to force a reduction in the price of ice at the plant of the Southern Ice & Utilities Co., the city council Tuesday night authorized the construction of a municipal ice plant at a cost of approximately $15,000.

In a resolution the council instructed Mayor John Vesey to appoint a committee of three to purchase and install "an ice plant" of sufficient capacity to supply the needs of the City of Hope. . . . the purchase price not to exceed $15,000.

The resolution states that if necessary the committee shall make the initial payments on the ice plant out of funds of the Water & Light Plant.

Aimed at Ice Co.
Tuesday's action by the council is a new development in negotiations that have been under way between the city and the Arkansas Railroad Commission for the last month to compel Southern Ice & Utilities Co. to reduce the local price from 60 cents a hundred.

In a counter proposal made direct to the council, the company offered to cut to 55 cents—but this was rejected.

No action has been taken by the Railroad Commission toward holding a public hearing on the Hope petition. The city represented in its petition that communities of similar size already had obtained reductions to 30 cents and lower.

The resolution adopted Tuesday night authorizing construction of a municipal plant recites that "residents of the City of Hope are being charged an unreasonable price for ice," and that "it is the opinion of the city council that the city can install an ice plant and manufacture and sell to the residents of the City of Hope ice at a greatly reduced price and still make such ice plant self-sustaining."

The City's Price
The resolution also recites that "the residents of the City of Hope shall be the actual cost of operating such ice plant plus a necessary margin for repairs and replacements only; and that the city shall never charge for ice more than the cost of manufacturing and handling plus the necessary margin for repairs and replacements."

Accompanying the resolution was an ordinance, also approved, which sets forth:

"That the price to be charged to the residents of the City of Hope shall be the actual cost of operating such ice plant plus a necessary margin for repairs and replacements only; and that the city shall never charge for ice more than the cost of manufacturing and handling plus the necessary margin for repairs and replacements."

Wright, district agent, to study the many valuable experiments with fruit, truck and field crops. The noon hour and frequent intervals during the day will be devoted to the singing of negro spirituals by the various groups represented. ## Selfishness As a Depression Cause

THERE was a whole lot of sound common sense in the remarks about America's economic system voiced the other day at the final session of the Methodist General Conference.

"The present industrial order," said the conference's manifesto, "is un-Christian, unethical and anti-social because it is largely based on the profit motive, which is a direct appeal to selfishness. . . . A satisfactory organization cannot grow out of an unsocial seed."

This, to be sure, is no more than what most thinking men have been saying lately. Yet it is a thing which needs to be said over and over again, and the church conference has done well in emphasizing it.

But merely repeating it will do little good, unless we are willing to sit down and think the thing through to its logical conclusion.

To say that the profit motive is a direct appeal to selfishness is to state an obvious truth; how many of us, though, have ever stopped to consider the way in which our individual and collective selfishness has helped to dig the pit in which we are now suffering?

It was unrestricted selfishness that sent stock prices soaring beyond all reason and so led to the crash of October, 1929, and it was selfishness, again, that kept the full force of that crash from being minimized.

It was unrestricted selfishness that caused unwise expansion of industrial plants and so led to overproduction; selfishness, too, that kept the millions upon millions of American wage-earners from getting incomes high enough to enable them to absorb that overproduction.

It was, in short an unselfish scramble for personal profits, on the part of practically all of us, that led directly to the present trouble.

Sooner or later, of course, we shall have prosperity again. When that time comes, though, it would pay us to reflect that unalloyed selfishness as a mainspring for human society does not work out very well. We must devise some way of restraining the profit motive.

War Songs

PRACTICALLY every English-speaking soldier in the World War knew about Mademoiselle from Armentieres. Knew about her, that is to say, in song. For the most famous of all war songs, beyond a doubt, was the highly improper ballad which had the catch-line, "Hinky-dinky parlez-vous," which told of the adventures of this fabled damsel from Armentieres.

Mademoiselle herself remained shrouded in mystery, until just the other day; and then an American composer, who is in France making a study of World War songs, announced that he had found out some things about the lady and had learned how the song came into being.

There was a cafe at Armentieres, it seems, and mademoiselle worked there. She was a very proper young lady, and one day a general, attempting familiarities with her, got his face roundly slapped; and at a regimental sing a few nights later some inspired songster introduced a ditty dealing with the incident.

And that, it seems, was the start of it; and the anecdote leads one to muse about soldiers' songs, and to wonder how they originate, and what it takes to set fighting men chanting the same chorus.

The World War soldiers sang this ditty about the girl from Armentieres. But what did other soldiers in other wars sing? They sang songs from music halls, of course—but they had their own special songs, too, and those songs never got in the anthologies, and they have been forgotten. The Roman legionnaires, it is said, had a rabal song about a girl named Lalage, who doubtless was a prototype of this Armentieres charmer; and it would be worth a good deal to know how the song went, and what its tune was.

Men who march off to fight must sing. They will sing everything and anything, except the pompous patriotic pieces which the stay-at-homes like; and usually they evolve their own pet songs, and, singing them, march off to die—at Ypres, or Chickamauga, or Waterloo, or Saratoga, or wherever it may be; and all we get is a tantalizing reminder that somewhere back of each song there was some flesh-and-blood figure like this mysterious girl from Armentieres.

Old Bills and Hoarders

THE old-fashioned, large-sized bills which constituted the paper money of the United States until a few years ago have practically disappeared from circulation. Most of us do not see one of those bills from one year's end to another.

It comes as a surprise, therefore, to learn from Representative Cochran of Missouri that no less than $538,000,000 of this large-sized money is still in circulation.

That, perhaps, is hardly the way to put it. It isn't in circulation; it is being hoarded. If it were in circulation it would vanish, for whenever one of those bills lands in a bank it is retired and replaced by a small-sized note.

The explanation against hoarding, evidently, still has quite a way to go. It isn't a billion in the old-fashioned paper money is still reposing in private caches.

Hope Wins 8 to 7 in 10-Inning Game

Taylor Team Fights Hard for Victory at Fair Park Tuesday Afternoon

Cargile's single to left field, scoring Velvin who had doubled, ended a 10-inning battle at Fair park Tuesday afternoon, and gave the Hope baseball team an 8 to 7 decision over Taylor.

Hope continued their heavy hitting, getting 14 safeties off Spencer, the Taylor pitcher, who only last Thursday held the locals to 2 hits and won a close ball game by the score of 2 to 1. Every man in the Hope line-up got at least one hit in the game Tuesday. At Garland City Sunday the Hope team collected 15 hits off three pitchers, bringing their total to 29 for the last two games.

Schooley started on the mound, but was relieved by Velvin after pitching five innings. He allowed the Taylor team three runs. Velvin was ineffective at the start, allowing a triple to the first man who fazed him, and a home run to the second. After that he settled down and pitched good ball for the remaining innings.

At the beginning of the fifth inning Taylor was leading 5 to 1. Hope came to bat in their half and scored four runs to tie the score. Collins, first up, singled, Coop followed with a single and Robins got a safety. Schooley doubled to clean the bases. Slaton singled to score Schooley and tie the game at 5-all.

In the first of the seventh Taylor rallied and scored 2 runs, but Hope came back strong to tie the score again on singles by Coop, Velvin, and a triple by Robins. The scoring ended for both teams until the 10th when Velvin hit a long double to left field and Cargile followed with a nice hit over the Taylor shortstop to score Velvin and win the ball game.

A larger crowd than usual turned out to witness the ball game, which was one of the best played at Fair park this year.

A DeQueen team will be seen here Sunday afternoon. Clyde Zinn, who played ball for Hope in 1932 when this city had a salaried club, will start on the mound for Hope.

I did not sleep at all well, so did not feel equal to my work when morning came. My sister told me that she thought Cardui would benefit me, and after I began taking it I could tell that it did help me. I rested much better, and felt better in every way. I took six bottles and it was quite a benefit to me."

Two in Stolen Car Free After Wreck

Identified as Suspects in Frustrated Burglary—1 in Prisoners' Brother

LITTLE ROCK.—A chase which lasted only a few blocks, during which two young men were the targets for a hail of police bullets, early Tuesday ended when the pursued car came to a stop and the two occupants were taken into custody.

The car was a 1931 Buick sedan, which was being driven by a young man, who was identified as Carl Mulvaney, brother of Vernon Lee Mulvaney, arrested Saturday and held in prison with a series of hold-ups and burglaries which ended last Thursday when John Henry White, North Little Rock youth, was shot and killed by Patrolman Biggs.

The other suspect, the officers say, was identified as the property of Joe Hart, North Little Rock youth, sought for his part in the robbery that was frustrated when White was killed. Hart has a police record.

The chase started at 2 Tuesday morning when Detectives Carles and Simpson of North Little Rock sought the car near the city. In the process of stopping the driver of the car, the officers fired their revolvers at the car. After the wreck the fugitives fled.

Vernon Lee Mulvaney, arrested Saturday by Detective Sergeants Cousins and Smith after a similar chase, confessed Sunday and implicated Hart and White in a series of robberies in White County, two hold-ups, three burglaries and several car thefts before White was killed, police reported.

The car recovered in North Little Rock Tuesday was owned by John Gray, 1225 West Twenty-fourth street, North Little Rock, who reported that it was stolen Sunday night.

Gift to "Poor" Mayor Inspired by Bo.

"Well, Judge, it sounds a little silly," admitted Paul Block, lower right, when he sought to explain on the witness stand why he had enriched Mayor James J. Walker of New York City to the extent of $246,000. The publisher declared that his son, Billy, when 10 years old, expressed solicitude about the Mayor's ability to support himself on his $25,000 salary. That gave Block the idea of "trying to make a little money for Jimmy," which he did by opening a joint trading account in which Mayor Walker never invested a cent. Billy and his mother are shown above with Mayor Walker during the latter's visit to California last winter.

"STANDARD" 1932 GASOLINE has everything!

"Good direction is only one of the essentials of a great picture," says Ernst Lubitsch, the famous director. "I am proud of my share in 'One Hour With You,' the latest Paramount success, but I could not have done what I did without the clever work of Mr. Chevalier, Jeanette MacDonald, Charlie Ruggles, an expert photographer and his staff, and without the inspiring author, Samson Raphaelson and the thousands of others who had a share in its success. A film, to be great, must have everything."

Ernst Lubitsch
ERNST LUBITSCH

A GASOLINE to be great must have everything, too. Just to be gum free is not enough. Just to be anti-knock is to be lopsided.

What you want is trouble-free, low-cost transportation.

Power that gets you there without ruining an expensive engine. Power that can be counted on when you need it. Power that starts like a flash—and is still with you at the end of the run.

A gasoline to give you this must have everything.

"Standard" 1932 gasoline has everything. The price you pay for it is the price shown at the pump. You don't pay for it a second time in the repair shop.

Read the list at the right. Check it.

And next time you buy gasoline—buy "Standard." "Standard" has everything a real gasoline should have.
